Dear Parents

Further to our ISI Inspection in late March which assessed and evaluated all aspects of compliance, educational attainment and personal development across the school, I am proud to share with you the final report.

In summary, the school was found to be fully compliant and judged as “excellent” across both the key facets. This is an outstanding validation of the all-round provision at Kingswood House and I commend my team of teaching and support staff for their commitment and expertise.

It should be noted that the pupils were also fantastic ambassadors for the school throughout the process. I am delighted that the school has such a strong foundation to build upon in the future.

Yours sincerely

Duncan Murphy
