KINGSWOOD

UKULELE CLUB

Music Room Thursdays

Years 4-6 1.00pm
Years 7-11 1.30pm

Ukulele is a fun and portable instrument to learn and it's been making a big comeback with artists like 21 Pilots and Taylor Swift all playing the Uke. The ukulele is quick to learn and many songs can be played on the ukulele. Guitarists can switch easily between uke and guitar and it's a great instrument to play and sing at the same time. Ukulele club will be run by resident 'Kingswood House School' guitar tutor Steve Bradfield.

Miss Jemma Love

Saxophone, Clarinet, Flute, Recorder, Singing and Composition

Miss Love is a London-based saxophonist and woodwind doubler active on the commercial, orchestral and musical theatre circuit. She made her off-West End debut in 2022, playing in 'Are You As Nervous As I Am?' at the Greenwich Theatre. Jemma regularly works in pit orchestra and with DJs and function bands across the UK and internationally, and is currently on the David Bowie Experience UK Tour. She also regularly plays with orchestras, and is the extra for the Irish National Opera.

Miss Love enjoys inspiring young people to appreciate a variety of musical styles in their lessons so that they can engage with their instrument and play successfully by themselves and with others.

Originally from Epsom, Miss Love graduated with first class honours from the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in 2021. She was also a member of the National Youth Music Theatre from 2019-2022.

Alongside her busy performance career, Miss Love has writing on music and comedy published in both Clarinet and Saxophone Society Magazine and presents a weekly segment on musical theatre specialist programme 'The Saturday Score' on Radio Shields. In her free time, Miss Love enjoys watching stand-up comedy and is currently learning British Sign Language (very slowly)!

Performing with Bowie Experience! Can you spot me singing?
